Volunteers Needed!

Help Us Make The Trails Beautiful!

Long Sault Conservation Area, Clarington
Saturday, May 30, 2009 from 9:00am - 11:00am

Volunteers are required to assist Central Lake Ontario Conservation staff to improve the trail network at Long Sault Conservation Area, Clarington on Saturday, May 30th from 9:00am until 11:00am. Activities may include trail closures, new kiosk signs, planting shrubs, and installing trail sign posts. Work boots and work gloves are recommended. This event will require some heavy lifting and is not suitable for small children.

"We really appreciate all that the volunteers do for us," says Jamie Davidson, Conservation Areas Planner with Central Lake Ontario Conservation. "On this day, we will be enhancing the trails at Long Sault C.A. for the over 10,000 watershed residents who visit each year."

If you are available for an hour or two please register for the event by contacting Mr. Jamie Davidson at the Central Lake Ontario Conservation Office (905) 579-0411 ext. 114 or visit online at www.cloca.com. All participants are asked to meet in the main conservation area parking lot.

Directions:

Exit 401 at Waverly Road in Bowmanville. Travel North on Regional Road #57. Turn right onto Regional Road #20. Turn left onto Woodley Road. Travel to the upper parking lot.
