Councillor Jim Schell Re-elected To Third Term As Chair Of The Central Lake Ontario Conservation Authority

At the Central Lake Ontario Conservation Authority's board meeting on February 14, 2006, Councillor Jim Schell, of the Municipality of Clarington, was re-elected to his third term as Chair of the Conservation Authority. Councillor Pat Perkins, representing the Town of Whitby, was also re-elected Vice-Chair of the Authority for a third term.

At the conclusion of the elections Chair Schell thanked the Directors for their continued support and confidence,

"2005 was another exceptionally busy year for the Central Lake Ontario Conservation Authority and I look forward to the challenges in 2006. CLOCA continues to make significant strides towards making our local watersheds healthy and sustainable. The Authority is working on so many different fronts to protect and enhance the natural resources in this part of Durham Region that I am proud to represent CLOCA as Chairman.

The work of the Central Lake Ontario Conservation Authority would not be possible without the support of our community partners, such as, the Region of Durham, member municipalities, environmental organizations and watershed residents. Thank you for your support and we look forward to working with all in 2006."

Chair Jim Schell was also appointed to represent the Authority on the Conservation Ontario Council.
